Local News

Warmer weather again.

Dewey Hats at Mrs. Fairbank's.

Old papers for sale at this office.

Farmers have commenced gathering corn.

The republicans had a good meeting Wednesday night.

Dr. Melvin returned from Omaha last Friday evening.

G. N. Titus shipped a car of apples to Holdrege Thursday.

Mrs. L. H. Merritt went to Omaha Friday, to visit the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Skeen, of Auburn, are visiting Nemaha friends this week.

This is the last week of the Omaha exposition. It will close next Monday night.

Mrs. Ollie Scovill will tack comforts for 25 cents apiece. Ten cents additional for hemming.

FOR SALE.—One of the best residences in Nemaha. Apply at this office for particulars.

Large line of Horse Blankets and Robes just received at Skeen & Williams' harness shop, Nemaha.

Mrs. J. H. Linn and Mrs. Fannie Fairbank started for Omaha Thursday morning, to visit the exposition.

Services at the Methodist church will begin at 7:30 p. m. until further notice. The league service will begin at 6:30.

Conover & Veach will buy hogs at Nemaha every second and fourth Wednesday in each month until further notice.

James A. Titus has had a new sidewalk built on the north side of his lot on which the store room occupied by S. K. Anderson stands.

M. H. Taylor and Gladys went to Omaha Sunday, to visit Mrs. Taylor and take in the exposition. Minor reports his wife improving very fast.

Samuel Harger, of Bates county, Mo., was visiting Thompson Pexton, I. N. Cooper and other old friends in Nemaha and vicinity last Saturday.

Lloyd Royle, postmaster at Brownville, and J. G. Sanders, editor of the Sun, were calling on some of their Nemaha friends last Sunday afternoon.

Col. Joe Harper was up from Shubert Thursday, and drove to Brownville to hear Burkett. Joe is not such a lover of fusion and popocracy as he was in former days.

Mrs. Moore, of Cogan, Iowa, arrived in Nemaha Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Moore is the mother of Mrs. M. H. Taylor and will keep house for Minor until his wife's return.

Mrs. W. H. Hoover and Mrs. Lillie Walsh came down from Lincoln Wednesday evening and will remain a few days, looking after business matters and visiting relatives and friends.

Peter Kerker, Louie and May Kerker, Mrs. Earle Gilbert and Miss Dora Merton went to Omaha Sunday morning and visited the exposition and other points of interest, returning home Wednesday evening.

There is nothing particularly interesting about Jay himself, but the styles and prices of clothing, gents' furnishings, hats and caps that he has for sale attract the attention of the most fastidious.

REMOVAL.

THE ADVERTISER office has been moved into the west room of the opera house building, where we invite everybody to call and see us.

Dewey Roberts took up his abode with C. W. Roberts and wife, near Champion school house, on Saturday last.—Granger.

Robt. P. Frost went to Leavenworth, Kansas, Wednesday night, to rejoin his company, but he came back Friday morning, having got another furlough for about two weeks.

Bens Stokes was shaking hands with his many Nemaha friends Wednesday. He is now living on the old Dick Young farm, southwest of Nemaha. Bens is as rantankerous a democrat as ever.

It's no wonder that Jay, of Brownville, is selling so many goods. Why, just think of it! He is selling good winter Underwear in both Men's and Boys' sizes at 50 cents per suit.

Mrs. Ed E. Sanders and children, who have been visiting the editor of THE ADVERTISER and family for a few days, went to Auburn Saturday, and are now settled in their new home.

The county officials closed their offices on Thursday to attend the funeral of H. D. Snyder, who had during his lifetime held the office as treasurer and several deputyships.—Granger.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Duff gave a surprise party last Saturday night to Mrs. Duff's brother, Marion Earhart, who was twenty years of age on that day. About sixty of our young people were present and they all report having had a splendid time.

Last week we advertised two Berkshire pigs for sale, and in answer we got a letter from a man living in Table Rock Tuesday forenoon, saying he wanted the two pigs and would take another one if he could get it. "It pays to advertise."

Men's and boys heavy Suits, Overcoats and Mackintoshes at most convincing prices at Jay's, Brownville, Neb.

Two of our distinguished citizens indulged in a foot race a few days ago on our streets. Both are old soldiers. Walt is now telling that the reason Ike beat him was because the latter done more running in the army, and thus had more practice.

Mrs. Harriet Hoover says she did something last week that she doesn't think has ever before been done in Nebraska. She pulled bean vines out from beneath a foot of snow and gathered a mess of string beans. This was done on Wednesday, Oct. 18th. Who ever heard of anything of the kind before, in this or any other state?

Old papers for sale at this office.

It is rumored that Jay, of Brownville, is selling more men's furnishings goods than any other man in Nemaha county.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!

In new fall and winter millinery, 11*4 MRS. THEO. HILL.

HOGS.

I will buy hogs at Nemaha and McCandless Siding Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week. Highest market prices paid.

HARRY K. MCCANDLESS.

HON. E. J. BURKETT,

Republican candidate for congress, will speak at

Peru, Friday, Oct. 28th.
Auburn, Saturday, Oct. 29th.

The candidates on the republican county ticket, W. R. Barton, Peter Berlet, J. W. Armstrong, Horace Shafer and Casner Barnes, will also be present at all these meetings.

HON. JOHN M. THURSTON

will be present at the meeting at Auburn Saturday evening, Oct. 29th.

EVERYBODY IS INVITED.

A rumor was in circulation through the newspapers some time ago, that Rev. George Price formerly pastor of this place, was dead. A letter written by him in New York and received here by L. R. Chaney last week says he has no notion of dying, and that he war never in better health.—Stelia Press.

T. H. Gillan, of Auburn, and P. F. Nestor, of Tecumseh, fusion candidates for float senator and float representative respectively, were shaking hands with the Nemaha voters Thursday. They did not get much encouragement here and report having a slim meeting at the Shockey school house the night before.

Casner Barnes has fine business qualifications, as he has shown by the way he has managed his own business affairs. He is honest and conscientious, conservative, a good judge in public affairs, and a man whom everyone respects. He will make one of the best county commissioners Nemaha county ever had. He is careful in passing judgment, and no power can make him vote for anything he considers wrong.

Peter Berlet, republican candidate for float representative, is a farmer who farmed and who made his money by farming. He is an Americanized Frenchman, a patriotic man, a good citizen, well educated, well posted on public affairs, an energetic, rustling, hard working man who will do good work for his constituents this winter. He is going to be elected, and those who vote for him will never regret it.

No one who knows J. W. Armstrong questions his honesty and integrity. The pledges he makes in the campaign he will use his utmost endeavors to carry out. He means every word he says. Mr. Armstrong has been in business a good many years, but he has never cheated a man out of a single cent. He will ably and faithfully represent Nemaha county in the legislature this winter.

When in Brownville go in and visit with Jay, even if you are not ready to buy, as he will be glad to show you his goods, "As it is no trouble for him to show goods and HIS prices.

Call in and see us if you want to subscribe for any paper published in the United States.

We make the following special clubbing offer for a short time:

THE ADVERTISER, New York Tribune, Chicago Inter Ocean, Toledo Blade, and the Prairie Farmer, all five papers one year for only $2.10, cash in advance.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding. Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.

HEADACHE QUICKLY CURED.
Dr. Davis' Anti-Headache never fails. 25 cents.

Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They never gripe. M H Taylor.

Ed Workman had a runaway Monday, and as a consequence has a badly demoralized hack. He had just returned from the depot, delivered some goods at the hardware store, and was going back to the stable. When almost in front of the postoffice the tongue dropped from the neckyoke. Ed pulled up on the lines but this ran the hack on the horses, and they started to run. Ed, who was standing up, was thrown down. When the team crossed the stone crossing by the drug store Ed turned them into the livery stable. The tongue ran under the sidewalk and broke in two. One side of the hack struck the north door, breaking the top of the back and also breaking the runninggears in several places. Ed and the horses escaped without any injuries.

W. R. Barton, republican candidate for state senator, is winning friends wherever he goes. He is an able man and will be one of the leaders in the senate. He has the respect even of his political opponents, and his ability and integrity are recognized by all. It is conceded that he will carry Johnson county by at least 250 majority (these are the figures given by one of the leaders of the opposition), and he will be elected by a safe majority.

Money to Loan

On good farms at as low rate of interest as the lowest and the best of terms. Call and see us.

GILMORE, GILLAN & BURRESS.
Auburn, Neb.

Horace F. Shafer, republican candidate for the legislature, is well educated, a good speaker, a man of experience and one who will rank in the first class in the halls of legislation. He is a farmer and is a good one. As Robt. I. Smith, a rank populist, said in referring to Mr. Shafer's candidacy, "No man can truthfully point to a black spot in Horace Shafer's past life." John H. Dundas, editor of the Granger, said: "Horace Shafer is one of the best men in the county. The republicans have made exceedingly good selections in Shafer, Armstrong and Barnes." All over you will hear just such commendations. Every man on the ticket is worthy of the votes of the people, and should be elected by a big majority.

The people again have a chance to get some of those excellent Penny Photos made by J. W. Pickles, South Auburn. He will make them just 30 days. Thousands have had them and we predict that he will make many thousand in the next 30 days. Every body in the country knows that Mr. Pickles gives the people full value.

Mrs. W. H. Hoover will be in Nemaha for a few days, looking after the business of the estate. Parties wishing to see her will please call at the grocery store of Burl Hoover.

John Wright, who has suffered several strokes of partial paralysis during the past year, is again bedfast. He was reported improving on Thursday.—Granger.
